Life of Your NLI

3 STEPS BEFORE RECEIVING YOUR NLI FROM AN NCAA DIVISION I OR II INSTITUTION

1. Register with the NCAA Eligibility Center
   log on to www.ncaaeligibilitycenter.org create your account
   ACT/SAT Test Scores and Transcripts

2. Complete the amateurism questions
   NCAA Division I or II Institutional Request List (IRL)
   If you are actively being recruited by a Division I or II institution, that institution will place you on its IRL.

THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE YOU SIGN!

1. What is the NLI?
   When you sign an NLI you agree to attend the signing institution for one academic year in exchange for that institution awarding athletics aid for at least one academic year. This agreement does not guarantee you playing time or a spot on the team. The only guarantee is that the institution will provide you with athletics aid for the academic year.

2. When and Who can sign?
   The NLI can only be signed during specific signing dates for your sport. You can sign an NLI if you are in position to enroll at the signing institution the upcoming fall term.

3. How do you fulfill the NLI?
   By attending the signing institution for at least one academic year as a full-time student; or
   By graduating from a two-year college if you signed your NLI while in high school and later attended a two-year college.

4. What if there is a coaching change?
   The NLI you signed remains binding if the coach leaves the signing institution. When you sign the NLI, you sign with the institution and not with a specific coach.

5. What is the NLI penalty?
   NLI PENALTY = serving one academic year in residence (2 semesters or 3 quarters) at the next NLI member institution and lose one season of competition in all sports. You can practice and receive athletics aid while serving the NLI penalty.
   This means you are either a:
   - high school senior;
   - Prep school student;
   - Junior College Transfer (2-4 or 4-2-4)

RULES TO REMEMBER WHEN SIGNING YOUR NLI!

1. Parent or Legal Guardian Signature
2. NLI Signing Dates
   You are not permitted to sign or date the NLI before the initial signing dates for your sport. Signing dates can be found on the NLI website.
   www.national-letter.org
3. Signing Deadline
   You have 7 days to sign the NLI from the date issued by the institution.
   The institution cannot withdraw the offer during this time period.
4. Signing Event
   It is permissible for family, friends, high school administrators, media, etc. to be present at your signing. It is not permissible for the signing institution’s coaches or any athletic representatives to attend your signing event.
5. Athletic Scholarship
   If you are not receiving athletic aid (scholarship), you are not permitted to sign an NLI. Athletic aid must accompanying the NLI.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER SIGNING?

Admissions - Eligibility
   It is your responsibility to ensure that you are enrolled at the signing institution and meet all admission and academic eligibility requirements.

Failure to Enroll
   If you do not enroll at the signing institution, you have not fulfilled the NLI agreement. The NLI will remain binding.

Quit the Team
   If you voluntarily withdraw from the team, the NLI remains binding even if the signing institution cancels your athletics aid.

Delayed Enrollment
   When eligible for enrollment but you choose to delay your enrollment at the signing institution, your NLI remains binding.

Release Request
   You can request a release from your NLI by submitting your release request online at www.national-letter.org. It is the signing institution’s decision to grant the release or not.

Transfer after Enrollment
   NLI Release and NCAA Transfer are different rules and different processes. If you transfer after attending the signing institution for one term, you are subject to both the NLI penalty and the NCAA transfer regulations.

More info about
   - NLI Recruiting Ban
   - All other coaches must cease communication with you once you sign your NLI.
   - If contacted by a coach, it is your obligation to let the coach know you have signed an NLI.

NLI Recruiting Ban

Fail to Enroll

Quit the Team

Release Request

More info about

Admissions - Eligibility

Failure to Enroll

Quit the Team

Release Request

NLI Recruiting Ban

Delayed Enrollment

Transfer after Enrollment
1. Register with the NCAA Eligibility Center
   log on to www.ncaaeligibilitycenter.org
   create your account
   ACT/SAT Test Scores and Transcripts

2. Complete the amateurism questions

3. NCAA Division I or II Institutional Request List (IRL)
   If you are actively being recruited by a Division I or II institution, that institution will place you on its IRL.

THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE YOU SIGN!

1. What is the NLI?
   When you sign an NLI you agree to attend the signing institution for one academic year in exchange for that institution awarding athletics aid for a minimum of one academic year.
   This agreement does not guarantee you playing time or a spot on the team. The only guarantee is that the institution will provide you with athletics aid for the academic year.

2. When and Who can sign?
   The NLI can only be signed during specific signing dates for your sport.
   You can sign an NLI if you are in position to enroll at the signing institution the upcoming fall term.

3. How do you fulfill the NLI?
   By attending the signing institution for at least one academic year as a full-time student; or
   By graduating from a two-year college if you signed your NLI while in high school and later attended a two-year college.

4. What if there is a coaching change?
   The NLI you signed remains binding if the coach leaves the signing institution.
   When you sign the NLI, you sign with the institution and not with a specific coach.

5. What is the NLI penalty?
   NLI PENALTY = serving one academic year in residence (2 semesters or 3 quarters) at the next NLI member institution and lose one season of competition in all sports.
   You can practice and receive athletics aid while serving the NLI penalty.
   This means you are either a:
   high school senior;
   Prep school student; or
   Junior College Transfer (2-4 or 4-2-4)

RULES TO REMEMBER WHEN SIGNING YOUR NLI!

1. Parent or Legal Guardian Signature
2. NLI Signing Dates
   You are not permitted to sign or date the NLI before the initial signing dates for your sport.
   Signing dates can be found on the NLI website.
3. Signing Deadline
   You have 7 days to sign the NLI from the date issued by the institution.
   The institution cannot withdraw the offer during this time period.
4. Signing Event
   It is permissible for family, friends, high school administrators, media, etc. to be present at your signing.
   It is not permissible for the signing institution’s coaches or any athletic representatives to attend your signing event.
5. Athletic Scholarship
   If you are not receiving athletic aid (scholarship), you are not permitted to sign an NLI.
   Athletic aid must accompanying the NLI.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER SIGNING?

Admissions - Eligibility
   If you are denied admissions to the signing institution or have not met the eligibility requirements, your NLI will be declared null and void.

Failure to Enroll
   If you don’t enroll at the signing institution, you have not fulfilled the NLI agreement. The NLI will remain binding.

Quit the Team
   If you voluntarily withdraw from the team, the NLI remains binding even if the signing institution cancels your athletics aid.

Delayed Enrollment
   When eligible for enrollment but you choose to delay your enrollment at the signing institution, your NLI remains binding.

Release Request
   You can request a release from your NLI by submitting your release request online at www.national-letter.org.
   It is the signing institution’s decision to grant the release or not.

Transfer after Enrollment
   NLI Release and NCAA Transfer are different rules and different processes.
   If you transfer after attending the signing institution for one term, you are subject to both the NLI penalty and the NCAA transfer regulations.

NLI Recruiting Ban
   All other coaches must cease communication with you once you sign your NLI.
   If contacted by a coach, it is your obligation to let the coach know you have signed an NLI.

Life of Your NLI

3 STEPS BEFORE RECEIVING YOUR NLI FROM AN NCAA DIVISION I OR II INSTITUTION

1. Register with the NCAA Eligibility Center
2. Complete the amateurism questions
3. NCAA Division I or II Institutional Request List (IRL)
Life of Your NLI

3 STEPS BEFORE RECEIVING YOUR NLI FROM AN NCAA DIVISION I OR II INSTITUTION

1. Register with the NCAA Eligibility Center
log on to www.ncaaeligibilitycenter.org

2. Complete the amateurism questions
Division I requires you to provide an official or unofficial transcript to the Eligibility Center or to the institution.

3. NCAA Division I or II Institutional Request List (IRL)
If you are actively being recruited by a Division I or II institution, that institution will place you on its IRL.

THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE YOU SIGN!

1. What is the NLI?
When you sign an NLI you agree to attend the signing institution for one academic year in exchange for that institution awarding athletics aid for a minimum of one academic year. This agreement does not guarantee you playing time or a spot on the team. The only guarantee is that the institution will provide you with athletics aid for the academic year.

2. When and Who can sign?
The NLI can only be signed during specific signing dates for your sport. You can sign an NLI if you are in position to enroll at the signing institution the upcoming fall term.

3. How do you fulfill the NLI?
By attending the signing institution for at least one academic year as a full-time student; or by graduating from a two-year college if you signed your NLI while in high school and later attended a two-year college.

4. What if there is a coaching change?
The NLI you signed remains binding if the coach leaves the signing institution. When you sign the NLI, you sign with the institution and not with a specific coach.

5. What is the NLI penalty?
NLI PENALTY = serving one academic year in residence (2 semesters or 3 quarters) at the next NLI member institution and lose one season of competition in all sports. You can practice and receive athletics aid while serving the NLI penalty.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER SIGNING?

Admissions - Eligibility
If you are denied admissions to the signing institution or have not met the eligibility requirements, your NLI will be declared null and void.

Quit the Team
If you voluntarily withdraw from the team, the NLI remains binding even if the signing institution cancels your athletics aid.

Delayed Enrollment
When eligible for enrollment but you choose to delay your enrollment at the signing institution, your NLI remains binding.

Release Request
You can request a release from your NLI by submitting your release request online at www.national-letter.org. It is the signing institution’s decision to grant the release or not.

Transfer after Enrollment
NLI Release and NCAA Transfer are different rules and different processes. If you transfer after attending the signing institution for one term, you are subject to both the NLI penalty and the NCAA transfer regulations.

RULES TO REMEMBER WHEN SIGNING YOUR NLI!

1. Parent or Legal Guardian Signature
2. NLI Signing Dates
You are not permitted to sign or date the NLI before the initial signing dates for your sport. Signing dates can be found on the nli website. www.national-letter.org
3. Signing Deadline
You have 7 days to sign the NLI from the date issued by the institution. The institution cannot withdraw the offer during this time period.
4. Signing Event
It is permissible for family, friends, high school administrators, media, etc. to be present at your signing. It is not permissible for the signing institution’s coaches or any athletic representatives to attend your signing event.
5. Athletic Scholarship
If you are not receiving athletic aid (scholarship), you are not permitted to sign an NLI.

Get in touch with your local NLI Admissions Consultant at 1-888-755-4737 or info@national-letter.org
Life of Your NLI

1. Register with the NCAA Eligibility Center
   log on to www.ncaaeligibilitycenter.org
   create your account

2. Complete the amateurism questions
   3. NCAA Division I or II Institutional Request List (IRL)
      If you are actively being recruited by a Division I or II institution, that institution will place you on its IRL.

THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE YOU SIGN!

1. What is the NLI?
   When you sign an NLI you agree to attend the signing institution for one academic year in exchange for that institution awarding athletics aid for a minimum of one academic year. This agreement does not guarantee you playing time or a spot on the team. The only guarantee is that the institution will provide you with athletics aid for the academic year.

2. When and Who can sign?
   The NLI can only be signed during specific signing dates for your sport. You can sign an NLI if you are in position to enroll at the signing institution the upcoming fall term.

3. How do you fulfill the NLI?
   By attending the signing institution for at least one academic year as a full-time student; or
   By graduating from a two-year college if you signed your NLI while in high school and later attended a two-year college.

4. What if there is a coaching change?
   The NLI you signed remains binding if the coach leaves the signing institution. When you sign the NLI, you sign with the institution and not with a specific coach.

5. What is the NLI penalty?
   NLI PENALTY = serving one academic year in residence (2 semesters or 3 quarters) at the next NLI member institution and lose one season of competition in all sports. You can practice and receive athletics aid while serving the NLI penalty.

   This means you are either a:
   - high school senior;
   - Prep school student; or
   - Junior College Transfer (2-4 or 4-2-4)

RULES TO REMEMBER WHEN SIGNING YOUR NLI!

1. Parent or Legal Guardian Signature
   If you are under the age of 21, your parent or legal guardian must sign the NLI with you.

2. NLI Signing Dates
   You are not permitted to sign or date the NLI before the initial signing dates for your sport. Signing dates can be found on the nli website.
   www.national-letter.org

3. Signing Deadline
   You have 7 days to sign the NLI from the date issued by the institution. The institution cannot withdraw the offer during this time period.

4. Signing Event
   It is permissible for family, friends, high school administrators, media, etc. to be present at your signing. It is not permissible for the signing institution’s coaches or any athletic representatives to attend your signing event.

5. Athletic Scholarship
   If you are not receiving athletic aid (scholarship), you are not permitted to sign an NLI. Athletic aid must accompany the NLI.

WHAT HAPPENSES AFTER SIGNING?

Admissions - Eligibility
   If not eligible, institutional aid will be canceled. (Must meet all admission and financial aid requirements for fall term and meet eligibility requirements for the sport you signed on the date you signed the NLI.)

Failure to Enroll
   If you do not enroll at the signing institution, you have not fulfilled the NLI agreement. The NLI will remain binding.

Quit the Team
   If you voluntarily withdraw from the team, the NLI remains binding even if the signing institution cancels your athletics aid.

Delayed Enrollment
   When eligible for enrollment but you choose to delay your enrollment at the signing institution, your NLI remains binding.

Release Request
   You can request a release from your NLI by submitting your release request online at www.national-letter.org. It is the signing institution’s decision to grant the release or not.

Transfer after Enrollment
   NLI Release and NCAA Transfer are different rules and processes. If you transfer after attending the signing institution for one term, you are subject to both the NLI penalty and the NCAA transfer regulations.

1. Organize your life now.
2. Be ready to go.
3. Stay focused.
4. Keep it going.
5. Never give up.